

Expressive Arts and Design

- Design Technology is taught through the area of Expressive Arts and Design and encourages children to develop their own making skills in a range of contexts using a range of materials to encourage them to explore, design and make.

EYFS

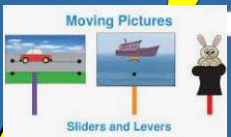

Year One

Food
Preparing fruit and vegetables.

Practitioner – Heston Blumenthal

Textiles

Mechanisms
Sliders and levers

Year Two

Textiles
Sewing to join

Practitioner – Henry Ford

Practitioner – William Morris

Free Standing Structures

Year Three and Four

Cycle A

Practitioner – Frank Lloyd Wright

Practitioner – Architecture of Chester

Textiles
2D and 3D Products

Practitioner James Dyson

Year Three and Four

Cycle B

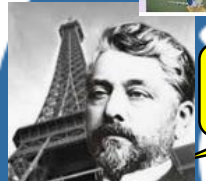

Practitioner – Vivienne Westwood

Mechanisms
Pneumatics

Mechanisms
Levers

Practitioner – Gustave Eiffel

Food
Healthy and varied diet

Year Five

Electrical Systems
Monitoring and control

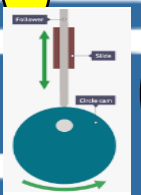

Practitioner – Thomas Telford

Practitioner – Tinker Hatfield (Trainer)

Mechanisms
CAMS

Year Six

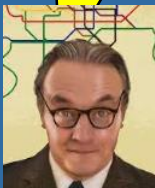

Food
Culture and seasonality

Computer aided structures

Practitioner – Harry Beck

Practitioner – Coco Chanel

